*6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. 7 Of the greatness of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this. Isaiah 9:6-7

Hello, from the snowy Northwoods!

This is one of my favorite times of the year! I love the beauty of the snow floating down from the sky, the contrast between the dark brown of the trees and the glistening white snow, and snuggling up inside with a hot beverage. The hustle and bustle of life seems to slow way down, which gives us more precious time with our families (esp. since it's too cold to do much outside!), and we often find more time to just rest.

As we quickly move closer and closer towards the ending of this year and the beginning of the next one, we are so thankful for those of you who continually lift us up in prayer before our Father in heaven. Without your intercessions, we know we wouldn't always have the strength and determination to continue.

Merry Christmas!

Let it snow, Let it snow, Let it snow!

By looking outside at the beautiful snow we have received in the past two weeks it really opens our eyes to the intricate love that is wrapped up in every snowflake that God has created. It makes this time of year even more extraordinary. We're looking forward to spreading the true meaning of Christmas to those in the community and spending time with family. During this time we pray that you too have the opportunity to share the story of Christ's birth.

Migwetch (thank you) for your continued prayers and support this past year. We wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Michelle and I have been very blessed this holiday season. We are thankful for so many things; coming home to a warm house, spending time with friends and family, sharing and making memories, and opportunities to share both spiritual and physical gifts. We are so thankful for the work God puts in front of us to do each day.

The end of the year is here and thankfully we only have a few residents staying with us. Earlier this month several of our residents checked out of the shelter and into apartments of their own. The remaining 4 are all scheduled to be into housing of their own in the coming weeks. How nice it will be for them to start out the new year with a place to call their own!

As we are making plans to celebrate the birth of Jesus I am reminded to be vigilant in sharing with the world the eternal gifts we've received of unconditional love, forgiveness, and most importantly salvation. Let's take this Christmas to remember to encourage one another to prioritize our love for Christ by using our gifts for His purpose.

Michelle and I are very grateful for your love and support throughout the year. On behalf of Kathy, Russ, Eugene, and Tina here at the shelter, thank you, we are blessed by the gifts of your prayers and donations.

Merry Christmas!

In His service, Micah Dewing – Shelter Director
