What a privilege it is to be working for the Lord here in Northern Wisconsin. Our family sends Christmas greetings to you. We so appreciate your countless prayers on our behalf. We know that there is no other way for us to be here but by God’s design and support. Thanks so much for the gifts that you have sent this year. The Lord has blessed us with our home, heat in the winter and cool in the summer, food in the cupboard, family close by and prayer warriors standing alongside. May the Lord Bless you in this coming year with His will and His plan. May we all share Jesus with those around us, showing God’s love to those we meet. Dear Friends,

This has been a year like no other in recent memory. The changes in our society brought about by the pandemic will greatly alter our Christmas celebrations. During this time of seeming uncertainty for each of us individually and all of us as a nation we can take assurance in the fact that the Christmas story reminds us that God is still on the throne and still accomplishing His purposes (Ephesians 1:11). Just as God orchestrated events in history 2000 years ago to bring His Son into the world according to detailed ancient prophecy, so He still oversees our lives today. God is working in history and He is working in our individual lives and neither the pandemic nor the election results change that fact. As we celebrate Christmas this year, we will rejoice in the incarnation of Christ, the redemption through His blood and the fact that we stand on a solid rock that cannot be moved (Isaiah 28:16; I Peter 2:6). We wish you a Merry Christmas and a blessed new year.

In His Service, Richard and Cheryl Jensen

Greetings to our fellow sisters and brothers!

While this time of year is probably looking quite different for some of you, I hope that you find the joy and beauty that is still here. This whole year has been a year to reflect and to fully see where we put our treasures. I pray that you know the love of Christ and that you are able to share that love with others, for that is the true message of Christmas, isn't it?

Thank you to all of you who have prayed for us! May you feel and know the blessings of our Lord Jesus Christ now and throughout to new year to come.

In Christ's name,
Adam & Jennifer Dewing

Hello everyone and Merry Christmas!

This year wasn't what we expected it to be and I'm sure the same is true for you. Even though many things weren't normal, we used this time to spend time with family, rest, count our blessings, and continue to trust in His great plan. We would like to thank you for being a blessing to our family by supporting us financially and through prayer. I hope that through the Christmas season and the year to come you are able to find joy, health, safety, and happiness while being a light for those who need it.

In His great name, Benjamin and Ashley Dewing, Hope, Mason, JessiLee

Michelle and I have been very blessed this year! With Jonah graduating from high school and Chase and Brooke getting married, it has been an exciting and eventful year. We are thankful for so many things; coming home to a warm house, spending time with family, sharing and making memories, and opportunities to share both spiritual and physical gifts. We are so thankful for the work God puts in front of us to do each day.

The end of the year is here and thankfully we only have a few residents staying with us. Earlier this month several of our residents checked out of the shelter. We have 2 remaining residents and a total of 6 people in transitional housing. Several of our residents are starting out this new year with a place to call their own!

As we are making plans to celebrate the birth of Jesus I am reminded to be vigilant in sharing with the world the eternal gifts we've received of unconditional love, forgiveness, and most importantly salvation. Let's take this Christmas to remember to encourage one another, to prioritize our love for Christ over our differences, and let our actions speak by using our gifts for His purpose.

Michelle and I are very grateful for your love and support throughout the year. On behalf of Kathy, Russ, Eugene, and Tina here at the shelter, thank you, we are blessed by the gifts of your prayers and donations.

Merry Christmas!

In His service, Micah Dewing – Shelter Director
