Merry Christmas,

We are so blessed by your prayers and support this year. Thank you so much for giving to the Lord through Midwest Indian Mission. God has placed us here in Northern Wisconsin and we praise Him for the time we have been able to serve among the Native American tribes in our area. We look forward to seeing what the Lord has planned for the year 2022. Our prayer for you this coming year is that the Lord will guide you in your steps. In Jesus.

Richard Jensen, Pastor

Dear Friends,

We wish all of you a Merry Christmas. The last three months have taught us to rely all the more on God's strength. In October we completed the study of the lives of the apostles. The month of November was dedicated to studying Luke's abbreviated version of the Sermon on the Mount. We are currently in Luke seven studying the faith of the Roman Centurion.

In Junior church Cheryl has been teaching a variety of Biblical topics. In October she taught a variety of lessons from the Scripture on overcoming fear, as well as lessons on overcoming the monsters which threaten our walk with God; fear, anger, selfishness, apathy and loneliness. The November lessons focused on thankfulness. This month she will focus on the Christmas message of the Gospel. In the past few months' children have come only occasionally. She has also been meeting regularly with women in the community for lunch, special craft days, and to go to the Potawatomi recreation center; building relationships and sharing the gospel. Our visitation ministry in the community was steady through October. It became intensely focused in November. After having trouble finding people at home for three weeks, we found ourselves able to visit ten families in one week when we delivered turkeys to them for Thanksgiving.

Both the mission and church pantries have provided ample opportunities in the past few months. We've had as many as ten families in the mission pantry each week. In our church pantry we helped two families in October and five when pantry was open in November. In November we also helped two other families later in the month. We would pray for each family, and on two occasions we had individuals willing to listen to and consider the gospel. Our church pantry this month will be on the eleventh. We are grateful for your prayer and support. In His Service, Pastor Richard Jensen

Dear Friends,

I greet you with a Christ-mas heart and snow in our yard. The autumn time is always busy, taking care of things that need to be done before the snow falls in winter, like getting my guys to put away the deck furniture and help clean out the garage, of which I am happy to have.

Many of our people are afraid to return to church, or have lost their hunger. It breaks my heart as we go visiting and hear the excuses and broken promises to return. We keep on, visiting many and praying for our community.

I find my ministry focus changing as the need to teach is less these days. God seems to be opening a door to visit with the community ladies I have met these years. My plan is to visit one or two ladies each Wednesday evening as the weather permits. Rick was asked to lead a home Bible study. This additional teaching will be a challenge as he must memorize his lesson. Since God helped Paul in the Bible with his bad eyes we are trusting Him for that same help.

We are enjoying the Christ-mas cards, and watching the sunday service on YOUTUBE on TV before we leave for church. Perhaps you could look at the camera and wave.

December is our church meal and decorating time. We will have a large meal and deck up the tree. I have my dough proofing in the oven for making fry bread for church, our people make it for special meals.

Thank you for your care for us.

In His Service, Richard and Cheryl Jensen

A frosty "hello" to all of our brothers & sisters in Christ!

Sometimes it feels like our country and our society is coming apart at the seams, doesn't it? It's easy to get discouraged and feel hopeless, yet this season is about hope and joy and love, for God sent His Son to be one of us. Not as a strong warrior and conquering king, but as a tiny, helpless baby; who was completely dependent on His parents.

* We have hope because of that baby, who grew and became that conquering King!

* We have joy because of His sacrifice and we no longer have to live under the bondage and tyranny of our sin, giving us the joy that passes all understanding!

* We have love because He first loved us!

From our family to yours, we wish you a Christ-filled Christmas!

In Christs' name, Adam & Jennifer Dewing
